I have Virginia license plates, can I take garbage to the Transfer Facility?

Vehicles with Virginia license plates will not be allowed to enter the Transfer Facility. Businesses with Virginia license plates that operate within Alleghany County are required to first register their business at the Alleghany County Finance Office, 348 South Main Street, Sparta, North Carolina. Those individuals with Virginia tags that own property in Alleghany County must first get a copy of their property identification card from the Alleghany Tax Office, 348 South Main Street, Sparta, North Carolina. When presenting the tax card and driver's license to the transfer facility attendant, the name on the tax identification card must match the name on driver's license.
